

a MILLION DREAMS

ZIV ZAIFMAN, HUGH JACKMAN I MICHELLE WILLIAMS

I close my eyes and I can see the world that's waiting up for me.
That I call my own.

Through the dark, through the door,
through where no one's been before
but it feels like home.

They can say, they can say it all sounds crazy.
They can say, they can say I've lost my mind.
I don't care, I don't care, so call me crazy.
We can live in a world that we design.

*'Cause every night I lie in bed
the brightest colours fill my head.
A million dreams are keeping me awake.
I think of what the world could be,
a vision of the one I see.
A million dreams is all it's gonna take.
Oh a million dreams for the world we're gonna make.*

There's a house we can build.
Every room inside is filled with things from far away.
The special things I compile each one there to make you smile on a rainy day.

They can say, they can say it all sounds crazy.
They can say, they can say we've lost our minds.
I don't care, I don't care if they call us crazy.
Runaway to a world that we design.

Every night I lie in bed...

However big, however small, let me be part of it all.
Share your dreams with me.
You may be right, you may be wrong
but say that you'll bring me along oo the world you see,
To the world I close my eyes to see,
I close my eyes to see.

Every night I lie in bed...

For the world we're gonna make.
